

Wisdom by Alana Bergey

“She is more precious than jewels and nothing you desire can compare with her” (Proverbs 3:15).

I'm sure that we have all encountered an out-of-context Bible verse at least once in our lives. As I was reading through Proverbs recently, I was struck by how often this happens, specifically in this book of the Bible, when we confuse wisdom for a woman when the trait is given the pronoun “she.” Despite the understandable mistake, this trait is certainly something we should all strive to possess—yet not for the attractiveness it holds but for the ways in which we may then serve God more fully here on earth and love those around us better. I was amazed by the weight of wisdom as a gift from God. As the verse above records, it is more precious than priceless jewels. In fact, it is incomparable. Later in verses 17-18, the Lord reveals that Godly wisdom gives not only peace, but life! “Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace. She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her; Those who hold her fast are called blessed” (Proverbs 3:17-18). Wisdom offers certainty and guidance amidst confusing pulls in many directions.

There have been countless occasions where I have felt lost in what to do. We want to do what is God's will, but many times it is hard to discern what that is. It is easy to get discouraged and even harder when those we trust contradict in their words of advice. But God tells us in His Word that He desires to give us wisdom. James 1:5 urges, “If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him.” God's heart is to give us what we need, and what a blessing that is. It might not come all at once, and this may be something we must ask of God every day when we feel muddled by the many directions we face, but we can confidently cling to the promise that God wants to give us His understanding.

Let us hold fast to wisdom and continue to ask God to provide us with this beautiful gift, that we might encourage and strengthen those around us, and find His path in this world.

Making Connections

Hello church family!

My name is Angie Nyce. I am married to Jordan Nyce, and we have 3 children, Harrison (11), Noah (9), and Emma (19 months). I am a local gal who grew up in this area and did a few short years in public school and then graduated from Dock. I stayed local after high school to pursue my degree in dental hygiene and graduated from MCCC in 2007. I got married that same year in July and began working full time as a dental hygienist at Weaver Reckner Reinhart. I know I have been blessed to have some of you fellow church members as patients.

Although getting a degree was important, my true passion and desire was to have a family and raise them to know and love Jesus. Staying home with my kids was something I knew I always wanted to do, and I am thankful I was able to start that journey when Harrison was born. I went into dental hygiene for this purpose. To be a mom full time and clean teeth on the side :) Being a mom has been the most humbling experience and has brought me to my knees in prayer many times.

I always desired 3 children, but I struggled with postpartum anxiety for a little while after my boys were born and wasn't sure I could go for a third. Jordan supported me, but I knew his desire was to have another. Many years went by and we enjoyed making memories with our family of 4. I kept all my baby items for years with the thought in the back of my mind that maybe just maybe we would try again. I gave my thoughts to the Lord and continued to go on with life. Proverbs 3:5 "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding." was one of Gods truths I leaned on. Over time the Lord started working in my heart preparing for what may come.

In July of 2017, I encountered a health journey that made me start doubting. I was diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis, and as with any diagnosis, fears of the unknown start forming in your mind. Jordan, family, friends, and of course church family were so supportive during that time. Thankfully I am at a good spot with my disease at this point, and if you ever want to hear more of my journey I'd be happy to chat.

I am getting long winded so I will need to fast forward. As you can see from our family photo we went for a 3rd child and were blessed with Emma. She has brought nothing but joy to our family. Her brothers are so great with her, and we thank the Lord for bringing her into our lives. I enjoy doing many things with my family. Bike rides, hiking, cooking, baking, gardening, and even throwing football and fishing. I am truly blessed to raise our children in this community of believers and am thankful for the support of you other moms no matter your age. Blessings to you all!

A BIG thank you from Keystone Opportunity Center!

Keystone was overwhelmed by all of our donations!! They said it felt like Christmas! "We can't tell you how much we appreciated the generosity from the your Women's Ministry, but mostly how much our families appreciated it. As you may know, the items you collected are not covered by SNAP benefits (food stamps) and can become quite expensive especially now a days with the increases we all see at the food store. This was such a blessing so thank you again!"
