- Are you walking with God or just visiting on Sundays?

A dark, stylized illustration of a stone building with a gabled roof and two windows. The building is rendered in shades of dark blue and black, with white lines defining the stone blocks and window frames. The roof is a simple triangle, and the walls are composed of irregular rectangular blocks. Two windows are visible: one on the left and one on the right, both with multiple panes. The overall style is minimalist and graphic.

- Why should we please God?

The background of the slide is a dark, monochromatic illustration of a stone building. The building features a prominent gabled roof with a central chimney. Below the roofline, there are two windows with multiple panes. The entire scene is rendered in shades of dark blue and black, with white lines defining the architectural details and the texture of the stone walls.

Why should we please God?

1. It's our example to follow. (Matt 3:17, Jn 8:29)

“And a voice from heaven said, ‘This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased.’”

- Matt 3:17

“The one who sent me is with me; he has not left me alone, for I always do what pleases him.”

-John 8:29

Why should we please God?

1. It's our example to follow. (Matt 3:17, Jn 8:29)
2. It's our Christian duty. (1 Thes 2:4, 4:1)

“On the contrary, we speak as those approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel. We are not trying to please people but God, who tests our hearts.”

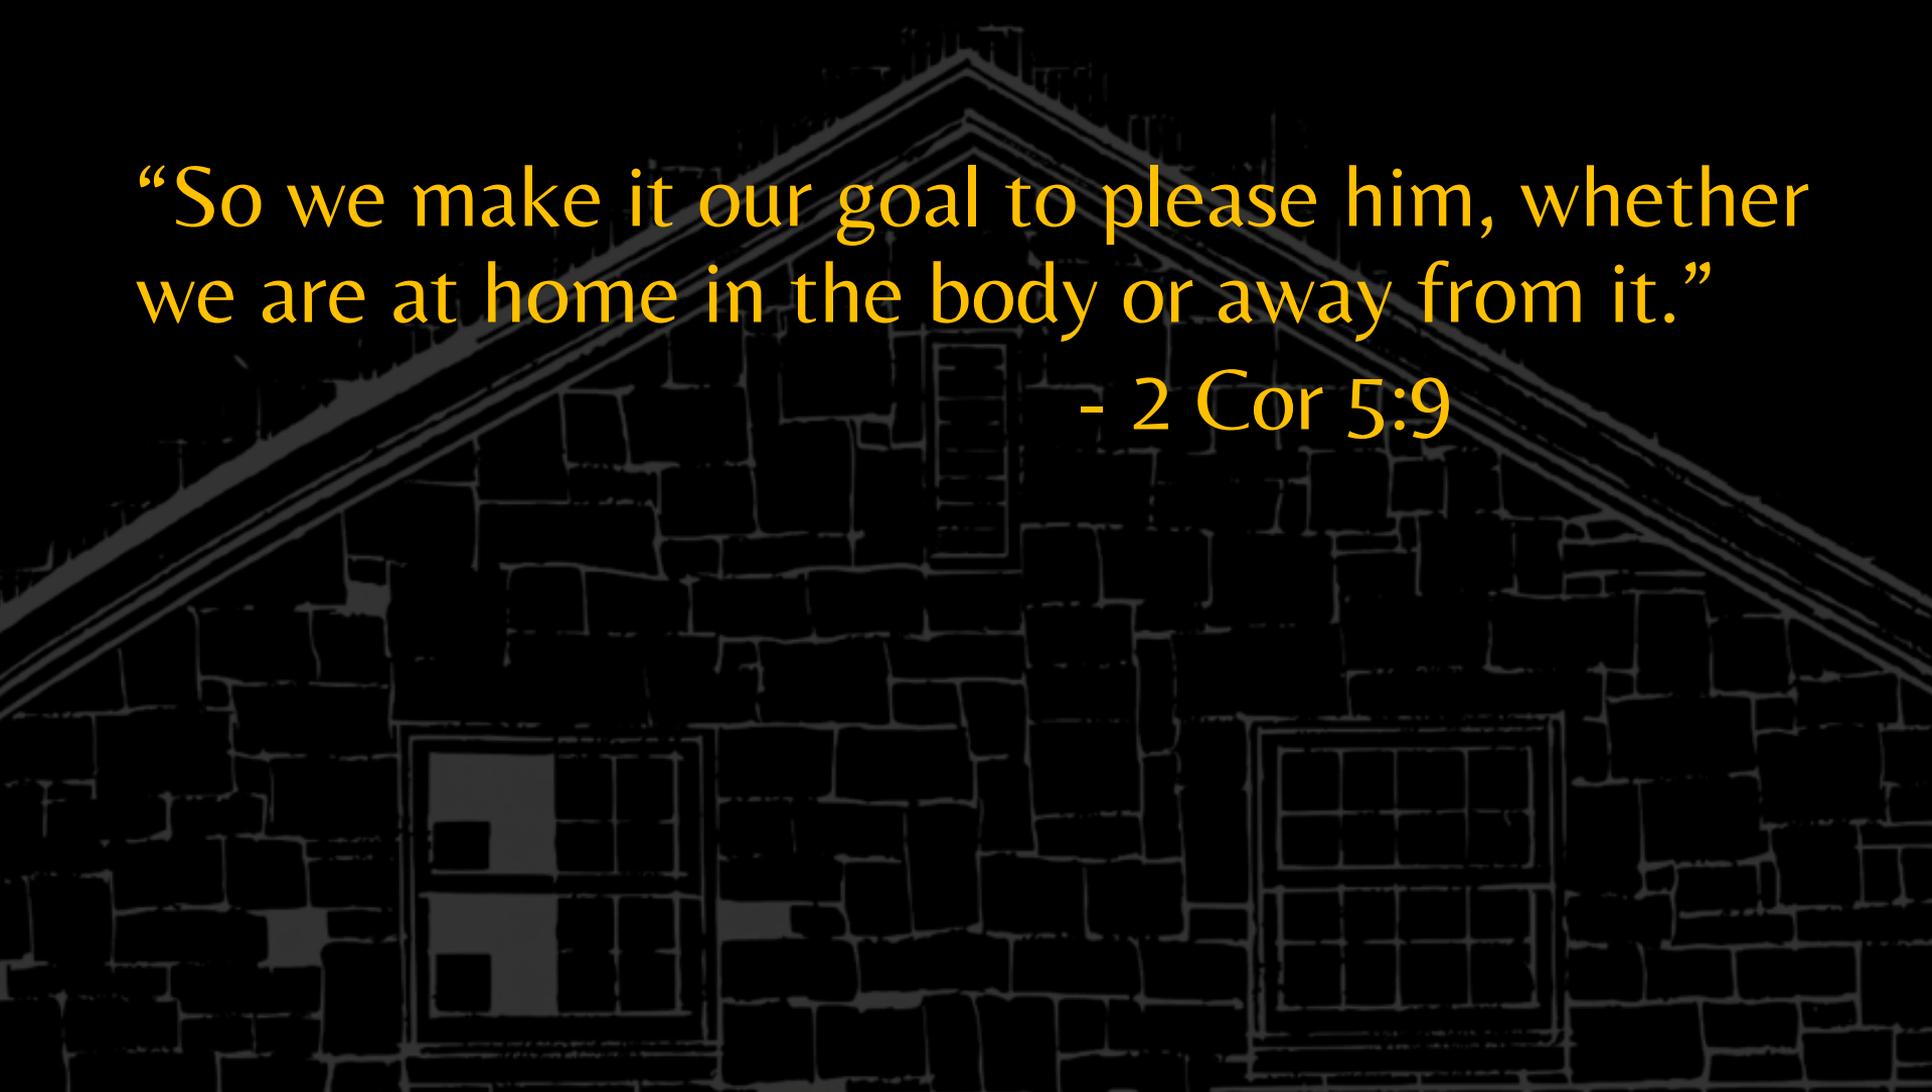

-1 Thess 2:4

“As for other matters, brothers and sisters, we instructed you how to live in order to please God, as in fact you are living. Now we ask you and urge you in the Lord Jesus to do this more and more.”

- 1 Thess 4:1

Why should we please God?

1. It's our example to follow. (Matt 3:17, Jn 8:29)
2. It's our Christian duty. (1 Thes 2:4, 4:1)
3. It's our goal in this life and the next. (2 Cor 5:9)

4. It's our witness. (Pr 16:7, Heb 13:16)

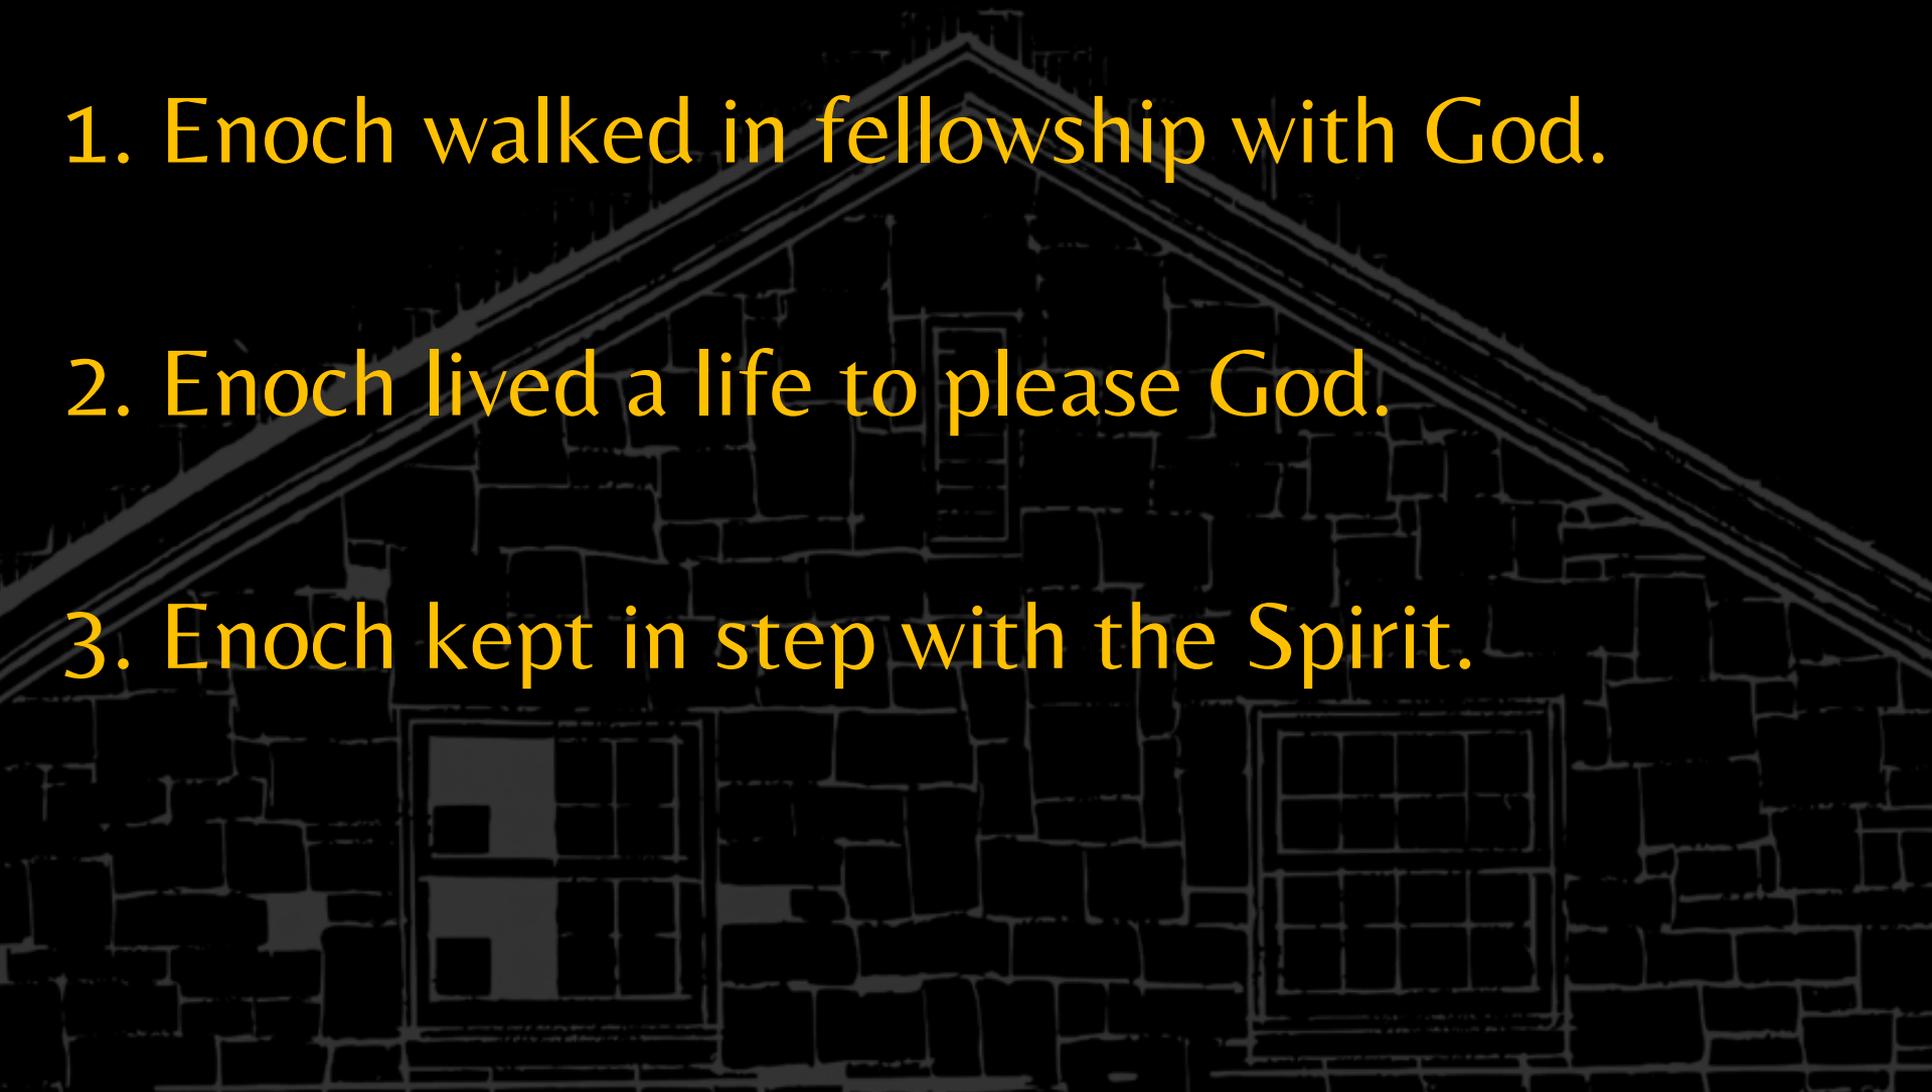

“When the Lord takes pleasure in anyone’s way, he causes their enemies to make peace with them.”

- Proverbs 16:7

“And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.”

- Hebrews 13:16
