

Holy, Holy, Holy by Kaylee Leaman

When we lose our reverence for the Almighty, so begins the slow, painless meandering into a life that can only be described as lukewarm and dishonoring to God. Recall the words from the familiar hymn, “cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee.” In Isaiah 6 we read that the seraphim have wings to cover their eyes and wings to cover their feet, and a third set of wings to soar around the throne of the King. When you think of this, do you feel the weight of coming before the throne of this all-powerful God? Do you come before the throne in all humility, with fear and trembling, knowing that the God you are approaching is this glorious? If these beings, angels, cannot even look upon His glory without a shield, then who are we to walk through life with no passion, no reverence, and no zeal. Romans 12:11 reminds us, “Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord.” Our Lord, by nature of His being, REQUIRES that we serve Him with all our effort. Make no mistake, you can choose to live with indifference to this truth, but you will stand before the throne to answer for each and every action of this life.

These truths are heavy in the best way. What a privilege to know the truth! Sisters, do not delay. Whether you have been following Jesus for minutes, months, or years, choose this day to continue faithfully down the narrow road. The road that is marked by trial and persecution, but also by immeasurable blessing and reward. He is worthy of all honor. Honor Him with your actions today. Honor Him in the way you pray and the way you praise. Honor Him in how you speak about Him to others. Ask Him for wisdom and clarity as you navigate life in a broken world as a passionate Christ follower. If you are lacking this zeal, then ask for a fire to be lit in you!

God, You are indeed holy, holy, holy. We come before You on trembling knees. We offer You our worship in return for all You've done for us. It is not sufficient to give You our worship on its own, but it is made sufficient by the blood of Your son and for that we are so grateful. God, transform our hearts, our thoughts, and our actions. Any piece of us that is still living for earthly satisfaction will You take it from us? Give us minds that know that this day matters for eternity. Amen.

Making Connections

Meet Tonya Fischer.

Hi! My name is Tonya Fischer. I am married to Brent Fischer, and we reside in Hatfield. My parents are Ron and Diane Nice, who also attended Franconia. I have a daughter, Abby, who is married to Daniel Moyer.

I was adopted as an infant, because my biological parents were very young and made the courageous decision to place me in a loving home with a young Christian couple who were very eager to become parents! I was born with Spina Bifida and had surgery to correct it, a few days after I was born. My parents were able to bring me home from the hospital, the day the Philadelphia Phillies won the World Series, in 1980. You should ask my mom about that trip home! The Spina Bifida never slowed me down like the doctors were afraid it would. I learned to walk at an appropriate age and have enjoyed playing various sports my whole life! Praise the Lord!

I grew up in the area and attended Penn View Christian School and then Christopher Dock. I then attended three different colleges, before deciding it wasn't right for me. I worked as a bank teller for a little while, then found myself checking out Cosmetology School. I was skeptical at first. But soon found myself thoroughly enjoying working with my hands, doing hair, to help people feel their best! Last October, I was blessed to open a salon with one of my closest friends and business partner. We named it Agapé Hair Collective. Our mission is to help our clients feel their best, while also giving back to the local community.

One of the greatest joys in my life is serving on the leadership team for Celebrate Recovery here at Franconia! On the first night I attended, I went to support someone else. I had no idea how much this ministry would come to mean to me. I have met and walked beside some really amazing people through this ministry. I can't wait to see what the Lord continues to do through CR!

One of my favorite verses is Ephesians 4:1-2. "...I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. Be completely humble and gentle; bearing with one another in love."
