Entrusted: Guarding the Gospel in Every Generation

The Church as Family

The Family of God:

- Treats People with Respect. (v 1-2)

Reflection Questions:

- Who in this congregation needs me to treat them as a father, mother, brother, or sister?

The Family of God:

- Treats People with Respect. (v 1-2)
- Does Not Outsource Responsibility. (v 3-8)

Reflection Questions:

- Who in this congregation needs me to treat them as a father, mother, brother, or sister?
- Would an outsider looking at my family relationships conclude I believe the gospel?

The Family of God:

- Treats People with Respect. (v 1-2)
- Does Not Outsource Responsibility. (v 3-8)
- Honors Faithful Lives. (v 9-10)

Reflection Questions:

- Who in this congregation needs me to treat them as a father, mother, brother, or sister?
- Would an outsider looking at my family relationships conclude I believe the gospel?
- What can I learn from someone who has walked with Christ for decades?

The Family of God:

- Treats People with Respect. (v 1-2)
- Does Not Outsource Responsibility. (v 3-8)
- Honors Faithful Lives. (v 9-10)
- Does Not Confuse Idleness with Freedom. (v 11-15)

Reflection Questions:

- Who in this congregation needs me to treat them as a father, mother, brother, or sister?
- Would an outsider looking at my family relationships conclude I believe the gospel?
- What can I learn from someone who has walked with Christ for decades?
- What is one constructive thing God is calling me to persue instead of wasting my time?

The Family of God:

- Treats People with Respect. (v 1-2)
- Does Not Outsource Responsibility. (v 3-8)
- Honors Faithful Lives. (v 9-10)
- Does Not Confuse Idleness with Freedom. (v 11-15)
- Shares the Burden. (v 16)